

Finding your “Partner in Crime” Psychology Style- Summer Assignment For Mrs. Armstrong

You will:

1. Join Google Classroom. The classroom code is laazsm1
2. In the classroom you will find a PDF of the current book. While we may be changing books, this is one that we can use now. Read chapter 1. Create flash cards for vocabulary for Unit 1. (Words can be found on page 16. For each card, put it in your own words. They are all in the chapter. If you look them up in the Glossary and not read the chapter you will be doing yourself a disservice.) If we are remote come September, I will reach out to you in Google Classroom and tell you how to hand in the flash cards.
3. You will be assigned a psychologist by the end of June. This list will be on Google Classroom. If you are not in the class at the end of June, just email me and I will assign you a psychologist. For the person you research you should create a “wanted poster.”
 - a. Name of your psychologist.
 - b. Which perspective they fall under.
 - c. Their important contributions to psychology and the world (MOST IMPORTANT COMPONENT). This can also include a visual.
 - d. A visual of your psychologist.
 - e. A reason they are “wanted” (you might have to be creative here, but that’s part of the fun).On the front of the box:
 - f. A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY (as in, where are they from, where they were born, where they went to school and maybe one or two interesting facts.”
 - g. A quote from that psychologist.
4. Cite all sources used for your person(you should put the sources cited on the back of the poster)
5. In the case that we are remote you will take a picture and send me the picture of the poster.
6. Write a one page [full page!] autobiography describing the SIGNIFICANCE & contributions of your FIRST person. It must be written in first person. This is to be done on google docs and handed in on classroom.

The goal of the summer assignment is for when we get back to school to do a psychology speed dating activity. This will happen in person or remote. All psychologists need to be represented so that the activity will work.

You will have three minutes with each other psychologist to decide who you would like to be your “partner in crime” and who would be your “arch-nemesis.” Prepare a 90 second introduction with key highlights about your FIRST PERSON. Pretend that you are kind of “speed dating” the other psychologists, be prepared to be honest but describe yourself quickly so you can attract a partner.

7. If you have any questions throughout the summer, email me at jarmstrong@bhprsd.org and I will get back to you. It may take up to a week as I am only going to be checking my email about once a week.
