1. Personnel:

- █████ read a prepared statement reviewing her job responsibility throughout her 16 years and currently. She also reviewed information concerning her job description.
- █████ reviewed her position with the district and her salary and the scale. New secretaries hired was making a greater salary and she was training her, asked how can someone be brought in at a higher salary? Person moved into the position was in the building already.
- █████ a twelvemonth secretary in the LMC reviewed her current position and changes that were made to her position. She reviewed her job responsibilities and various additional responsibilities that she has been asked to do. She feels the salary does not reflect her position and duties.
- Mr. Eckmeyer asked the Personnel Committee to review the information and work to resolve, address and respond to the concerns of the employees and if required bring it back to the Board if action is needed.
- Dr. Repici reviewed concerns, performance and mental Health of █████. Comments about District requirements for remote teaching and ROTC partner. District will seek fitness for duty test, receiving VA Therapy/Services. Mr. McElroy suggest allowing VA doctor to do fit for duty due to PTSD concerns. He asked about conflicts between ROTC officers. Who is the cause? Dr. Repici was told by █████ that she would provide documentation of the conflicts – none were received.

Mr. Rizzo and Mrs. Scully stepped out of the Executive Session.

- 2019-2020 Superintendent's Evaluation – Mr. Eckmeyer discussed Dr. Repici's 2019-2020 evaluation.
