

WHAT YOU THOUGHT WAS MILES AWAY, IS RIGHT IN YOUR BACKYARD

camden county
ADDICTION AWARENESS TASK FORCE

HEROIN. PILLS. IT ALL KILLS.

A six-part educational series for addiction professionals,
community stakeholders, parents and others.

All 2020 Spring Semester
Workshops Start at 6:00 PM

Camden County College
Connector Building - Room 105 - Civic Hall
200 College Drive,
Blackwood, NJ 08012

RSVP TODAY!

Contact Patty DiRenzo
at (856) 374-6137 or by email at patty.direnzo@camdencounty.com

ONLINE REGISTRATION AVAILABLE
camdencounty.com/service/camden-county-college-series

Continuing Education CEU's will be available
thru Camden County College. (CADC, LCADC)

SCHEDULE

- Feb 20 Dangers of Vaping?
Presented by Cathy Butler-Witt, MA, BSW, NCTTP, CTTS—Assistant Director, Public Health Programs for Family Health Initiatives and the Southern New Jersey Perinatal Cooperative. Cathy holds a Master's degree in Human Services, a Bachelor's degree in Social Work, a National Certificate in Tobacco Treatment Practice.
- Mar 19 Gaming/Gambling, Youths and Gaming Addiction
Presented by Daniel Trolaro, Assistant Executive Director Council of Compulsive Gambling of New Jersey
- Apr 23 Harm Reduction
Presented by Martha Chavis, Executive Director Camden AHEC. Martha Chavis has over 40 years work experience with nonprofit organizations providing health education, employment and social services. As Camden AHEC's Executive Director, Ms. Chavis has as her agency's mission, 'healthy futures for all people.' Ms. Chavis is a passionate proponent for 'a healthy quality of life' which she believes everyone is deserving. Ms. Chavis has been on the frontline of HIV prevention services since 1984.

SUPPORTED BY

Camden County Department of Health & Human Services, Office of Mental Health & Addictions, Camden County College Human Services Program